

Hired or Fired?

A professional attire and interview competition

Presented by the Brothers of Sigma Phi Epsilon

Co-sponsored by the Career Services Center

Explanation of Event: This event is a competition to see what RSO/RUO sponsored students are the most professionally prepared with regard to their resume, attire, interview and elevator speech. The event will take place in Gemmell MPR on Thursday, February 27, 2014 (time TBD). At the end of the evening there will be a 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winner.

Sponsorship: To enter into this competition a student must have an RSO/RUO sponsor them. The cost to the sponsoring organization will be $20 per individual sponsored, and there is not a limit on how many people an organization can sponsor. Checks may be made payable to Sigma Phi Epsilon – Clarion SEC.

How to Register:

- Submit a resume to resumes@clarion.edu, by December 13, 2013.
- Submit Basic Application and $20 payment to SigEp Gemmell RSO Box 14 by December 13, 2013.
 - The $20 payment is non-refundable.

Process of the Event:

- Round 1: Contestants are judged on first impression, elevator speech along with the previously judged resume score
- Round 2: Judged on attire
- Round 3: Judged on interview (The top three combined scores will receive 1st, 2nd and 3rd place)

Judging Criteria:

- All rounds of competition are judged on a 1 to 10 scale
- Resume: Clarity, content and organization (Judged by real employers)
- First Impression: Charisma, poise and confidence
- Elevator Speech: Articulation, effectiveness and confidence
- Attire: Maturity, fit, and overall appearance
- Interview: Fluidity, concise, clear
